Note for the Reader.

The tenth volume of the Registers of the Diocese of Hereford, now completed, consists of the long and important Register of Claverley. It is a particularly interesting Register, not only on account of the extensive parish and families connected with it, but because it has been compared and corrected with the original Parish Register, and also with the original transcripts which were formerly sent in to the Peculiar Court of the Deanery of Bridgnorth.

For the transcript and the careful collation the Society is indebted to Lieutenant-Colonel G. S. Parry, of Eastbourne, who has also most generously defrayed half the cost of printing the Register and Index.

The Register is, as has been the plan adopted throughout, printed in abstract form, and the following abbreviations have been used :—

a.—aged.	gent.—gentleman.
aff.—affidavit.	inf.—infant.
b.—bachelor.	lic.—license.
b.—born.	mar.—married.
bap.—baptised.	s.—son.
C.—Claverley.	sp.—spinster.
co.—county.	w.—wife.
d.—daughter.	wid.—widow.
dioc.—diocese.	widr.—widower.
esq.—esquire.	wit.—witnesses.

It might be noted that in 1667 an Act was passed in the interest of the woollen trade, ordering all bodies to be buried in woollen under a penalty of 50s., and in 1678 a second Act directed that an affidavit should be made within eight days of the burial. After this date in the Register, the word “Aff.” (affidavit) will be found affixed to entries of burials. The word “pauper” does not necessarily imply poverty, but that the duty imposed by Act of Parliament on registering births, deaths, and marriages, was not paid.

Claverley Registers.

Claverley is a very large parish, six miles east of Bridgnorth, in the Hundred of Brimstree, Rural Deanery of Bridgnorth, Archdeaconry of Ludlow, and Diocese of Hereford. It comprises the hamlets of Aston, Beobridge, Broughton, Dalicott, Farmcote, Gatacre, Heathton, Hopstone, Ludstone, Shipley, Sutton, and Woundale. The area of the parish is 8,185 acres, and the population in 1901 was 1,358. A portion of the parish was separated in 1870, to form the new ecclesiastical parish of Tuck Hill.

At the Domesday Survey, Claverley was reputed to be in Staffordshire, but in Henry II.'s reign it was in Shropshire. Before the Conquest, Claverlege belonged to Algar, Earl of Mercia, but William I. granted it to Roger de Montgomery, the first Norman Earl of Shrewsbury. Earl Roger gave the whole tithes of Claverley, together with the Church, to the Collegiate Church of Quatford. After the rebellion of Robert de Belesme, the manor came into the hands of Henry II., and the Sheriff of Shropshire became the Fermor of the King's demesne at Claverley.

Of the numerous townships, the most important were Broughton, granted in 1155 to Robert de Giros; Beobridge, presumably granted to Roger Venator, and afterwards the inheritance of the Kilpecs; and Gatacre, from an early date the property of the knightly family of Gatacre, who are still the owners of this township.

The church of All Saints at Claverley was originally connected with the collegiate foundation of Earl Roger de Montgomery at Quatford, afterwards transferred by his son Robert de Belesme to Bridgnorth. The Deans of Bridgnorth were also Rectors of Claverley. The church is built of red sandstone, in various styles of architecture. The lower portion of the tower and the arcade on the north side of the nave are in the Norman Style, but are probably the work of Saxon builders and masons. Considerable remains of the still older Saxon Church yet exist. The Saxon west wall is complete, and part of the Saxon wall-plate and several of the Saxon roof-timbers of the south wall still remain in situ. The south aisle, west wall of the nave, and the chancel were built in the Decorated period. The north aisle, but not the arcade, was rebuilt in the Perpendicular period; and a chapel was erected on the north side of the chancel. Later on, in the 15th century, the tower was raised, the porch and clerestory added, the roof of the nave erected, and the south wall of the south aisle rebuilt. The chapel on the north side of the chancel was built perhaps early in the 16th century. In 1601 the chancel roof was erected.*

These particulars are chiefly taken from Cranage's Architectural Account of the Churches of Shropshire, I., 10—19.

In the south chapel are some interesting monuments to the Gatacre family. A slab on the east wall represents William Gatacre, Esq., in armour, who died in 1577, and his wife; another slab commemorates Francis Gatacre, 1599, in civilian costume, and his wife. There is an interesting tomb to Sir Robert Broke, Speaker of the House of Commons, dressed in legal costume, with the collar of SS., 1558, and his two wives, the second being Dorothy Gatacre, and 17 children. The font is Norman, and has foliated carvings, and underneath a round arched arcade with notched columns. In 1902 the church was restored at a cost of £4,000, and during the work a mural painting, which is said to be of the 12th century and to represent some military scene, was discovered on the north wall of the nave. Over the spandrels are angels and religious emblems. In the churchyard is an early 15th century cross, which formerly stood in the Bull Ring, but in 1826 was removed to its present place, the shaft being shortened and fixed on a new base: In May, 1553, there were at Claverley "four bells of accord [and a] chalyce wt. a [patent]." In the church, in the 17th century, were the Coats of Arms of Talbot, Gatacre, Brooke, and other families.

The Parish Register Abstract of 1837 contains the following account of the Registers:—"Claverley P.C. No. I., Bap., Bur., Mar., 1568—1714. Nos. II., III. (Parchment), Bap., Bur., 1715—1758; Mar., 1715—1753. Nos. IV.—VI. (Parchment), Bap., Bur., 1759—1812. Nos. VII.—IX., Mar., 1754—1812.

The first volume begins with the year 1568 and ends with 1714. The earlier part, down to 1599, is a transcript made in that year from an older Register, probably on paper, which had been kept by William Wele. The volume is almost uniformly well written and there are no missing portions. It is in excellent preservation and has been strongly bound in vellum at some period since 1714, for the condition of the first and last pages shews it to have remained some time without covers. It consists of 113 closely written parchment leaves, with, in addition, two paper and two parchment fly-leaves at the beginning, and two parchment and three paper fly-leaves at the end. Size,  $14\frac{1}{2} \times 16\frac{1}{2} \times 1$  inches.

The Churchwardens' names, which throughout the volume are never actual signatures, appear in 1599, being afterwards discontinued till 1607, after which both Minister's and Churchwardens' names occur at the beginning of each year during the whole of Mr. Rudge's incumbency. In 1626, Mr. Gilbert Walden's writing is recognizable, but it is not till 1634 that his name is found at the beginning of the year with those of the Churchwardens. He continues to make the entries till July, 1646, after which the name of Mr. Thos. Lawton appears at the foot of each page, together with those of the Wardens, till October, 1655. Mr. Wm. Izard's writing begins in 1656 and continues till March, 1663. In Sept., 1656, in accordance with the Act of 1654, he begins to enter births as well as baptisms, in some cases births only, a practice which is discontinued in 1661. He also records publications of banns with varying degrees of fullness till 1659.

In 1661, a licence to eat flesh, granted to Thomas Whitmore, Esq., and his wife, is recorded. In 1663 the Register was kept, "in the vacancie of a Minister," by Mr. John Gopp, at the request of the Wardens. The Rev. Mr. Benj. Guest first signs in 1665, and his name, and those of the Wardens, are entered at the bottom of each page till his death in 1714.

After 1678, burials in Woollen are carefully recorded till the end of the volume; they have not, however, been entered in this transcript after Feb., 1697—8. In 1682, Margaret, wife of John Whitmore, Esq., was buried, but no affidavit was brought, "whereupon a Warrant was granted by Henry Davenport, Esq., for seizing the sum of 5*£, as by a late Act of Parliament is required." Again in 1697, Elizabeth, wife of John Saunders, gent., was buried in linen, "and the next morning information was given to Henry Davenport, Esq., and thereupon 5£* was paid by Mr. Saunders, and distributed as was by law required," i.e., half to the informer and half to the poor.

In 1698, Humphrey Elliot, gent., and his wife are stated to belong to the Romish Church, and the births only of their children are recorded, and from this date on, other names (Moseley, Halton, Nock, Jervis, Pool, Farnell, Rowley, and Ireland), are entered as Papists.

There are eight entries in Latin in 1625. The word nothus is used for base-child (1627—9), and filius populi once in 1648, and in cases of this description the father's name is commonly entered as well as the mother's.

The original spelling of surnames has been preserved in transcribing, but the spelling of Christian names has usually been modernized. Mr. Rudge (1599—1625), spells Francis and Frances alike for both sexes, Francys.

Volume II. contains Baptisms, Burials, and Marriages from 1714 to 1736. There are no entries of an unusual character and notices of burial in woollen are discontinued. Curate and Wardens sign at the end of each year down to 1725, after which the names are not entered till the end of 1729, when they are no longer actual signatures. During Mr. Hill's incumbency (1714—26), the entries are made in various hands, apparently never by himself. This volume, which has been carefully kept and well written, is not so well preserved as Vol. I. It has a parchment cover, but the 14 parchment leaves have become detached and the cover is dilapidated. Size, 19½ × 6¾ inches.

Volume III. contains Baptisms and Burials from 1737 to 1758, and Marriages to Mar. 25, 1753. It consists of 12 parchment leaves and one paper fly-leaf, bound in vellum, and is well written throughout by the Minister, Mr. Edward Thornes. Minister's and Wardens' names appear at the end of each year, but, except on the first and last pages, the Wardens' names are not signatures.

Volume IV. contains Baptisms and Burials, 1759—1773, on 12 parchment leaves, well preserved and well written. Another leaf with the latter half of 1773 has been cut out, but that year, including the missing portion, is repeated in Vol. VIII. The entries down to the end of 1764 were made by the Rev. Edward Thornes, after that date by the Rev. John Marsh. The years continue to begin on 25th March down to 1767. Names of Clergy and Wardens are inserted at the end of each year, but the latter are rarely signatures. Size,  $15 \times 8\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

Vol. V. contains Marriages, 1754—1774, on 24 paper leaves, with 3 printed forms to a page, all the forms filled in, the last page being in blank without forms. It is bound in vellum. Size,  $15 \times 9\frac{3}{4}$  inches.

Vol. VI. contains Marriages, 1774—1795, on 24 paper leaves, with 3 printed forms to a page, all filled in, bound in vellum. There are two fly-leaves at each end. A few of the leaves are loose. Size,  $15 \times 10$  inches.

Vol. VII. contains Marriages, 1795—1812, on 88 paper leaves, with 4 printed forms to a page. Thirty-three pages are filled up and  $71\frac{1}{2}$  leaves are left blank. There is a printed title page and two fly-leaves. It is bound in rough calf and in good repair. Size,  $9\frac{3}{4} \times 15\frac{1}{4}$  inches.

Vol. VIII. contains Baptisms and Burials, 1773—1799. Up to 1789 they are entered together, but after that date the Burials are entered separately at the end of the book. It is bound in vellum and there are 31 parchment leaves, all filled in, and one paper fly-leaf at the end. Size,  $10\frac{1}{2} \times 13\frac{1}{2}$  inches.

Vol. IX. has at one end Baptisms, at the other Burials, 1799—1812. It has 23 parchment leaves, of which four in the middle of the book remain blank, and a number more have been cut out from the middle. There are besides, 11 blank paper fly-leaves. It is bound in vellum and has been well written by the Minister, and is in good order. Size,  $14\frac{1}{2} \times 5\frac{1}{4}$  inches.

Vol. X. contains Marriages, 1813—1837, on printed paper forms, 3 to a page, printed in pursuance of the Act of 28 July, 1812, by Geo. Eyre and Andrew Strahan. Of these forms, 223 on the first 75 pages are filled in, the rest of the book remains blank. There is a printed title page and one fly-leaf. It is bound in vellum. Size,  $15\frac{3}{4} \times 10$  inches.

Trades or callings are very rarely entered, but in the years 1810—12, a few have been inserted between square brackets. They are taken from the succeeding volume of Baptisms after 1812. A very few trades and places of residence have similarly been added from information derived from Wills, and placed between square brackets.

MSS. 28739), and the present transcript (except the Marriages after 1754) has been compared with it, and such additions and corrections as were necessary have been made from it. These additions have been placed within square brackets. Many years are, however, deficient in the British Museum transcript, these are as follows:—1568—1635, 1637—9, 1641—1661, 1663—66, 1668, 1672—85, 1690, 1691—94, 1699, 1702, 1708, 1711, 1717, 1726, 1730, 1736, 1793, 1810, 1811, 1812 in part.

The present transcript was made by Lieutenant-Colonel G. S. Parry, who has also collated the same with the original transcript preserved at the British Museum, and has carried the proof-sheets through the press. The Society is also indebted to him for most generously defraying half the cost of the Register and Index. It is now printed by the kind permission of the late and present Vicars of Claverley.
